

Explanation of Treff-End's Vision

Implementing Great Ideas

We want to answer two questions in life. Paul asked these questions when Jesus intercepted him on his way to persecute Christians in Damascus. Acts 9. The questions are:

1- Who are You, Lord? Acts 9:5.

2- Lord, what do You want me to do? Acts 9:6.

We believe answering these two questions helps us live a fulfilled life on earth. Every success that stands the test of times centers on answering them.

Question 1: Who are You, Lord?

We don't need anyone to explain the world's confusion. The conflicting worldviews and their impact on human decisions speak for themselves. We can clearly see the resulting chaos. Humans have long thought they are in control. How many theories of a better world did we see? But the condition of the world has never been worse than in our days. All these point to one fact: we have rejected the Supreme Creator, God. Yes, you may not believe in God. You may not even want to hear about His existence. Truth is, you can't go around the evidence. And neglecting him can only worsen things.

Treff-End can't make the blatant mistake—to overlook God's existence. And if we know He exists, we want to know Him and understand His reasons for creating us. Paul discovered the first most important thing in life is to know who God is. He said, "that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death." Philippians 3:10, NKJV. Treff-End has a primary aim to help you know God. We want Him to reveal Himself to you.

God reveals much about Himself and will in the Bible. 2 Timothy 3:16-17. The Bible distinguishes itself as the major source of knowledge to help us know Him. Romans 12:1-2. Treff-End stands by the fact the Holy Bible is the inspired word of God, the infallible rule of faith and conduct.

Question 2: Lord, what do you want me to do?

Why so much chaos in this world? We don't know God. So we can't inquire from one we don't know. The result—everyone goes his or her own way. Everyone thinks he or she is in control. How many times have we seen humans doing evil things against their fellow brothers and sisters? And they don't even realize life is so short. A lifespan of 70 to 100 years compared to eternity after death. This reminds one has to live by certain values and pursue specific goals and objectives. You don't want to find yourself among losers at the end of it all.

Answering this second question after sufficient answers to the first is paramount. God says, "... We are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them." Ephesians 2:10, NKJV. You don't want to join a confused world, doing your own things. No, you don't want to do things God didn't ask you to do. What will you tell Him on that judgement day?

Implementing Great Ideas

Treff-End doesn't want you to waste your life on worthless things. We developed Treff-End's Project Tools to help you answer this second question. We approach God by faith. He tells us what He created us for. He shows us how He wants to use us. Then we go out and do those things He shows us. In the end, we can say with confidence, "I have fought the good fight of faith, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that day..." 2 Timothy 4:7-8.
